

Todd F. Taggart

CPA (Minnesota), CCIFP

Partner, Tax Services

In addition to being a tax partner, Todd is the National Construction Practice Leader and is a member of Grant Thornton's national Construction, Real Estate and Hospitality practice leadership team.

Experience

As Chair of the Construction Industry Group in Minneapolis, Todd is responsible for coordinating that office's activities directed to contractors, architects and engineers, and suppliers to the construction industry. Todd has over 25 years of experience as a Certified Public Accountant.

Presentations and publications

Todd has re-written "Taxes", Chapter 29 of CFMA's Financial Management and Accounting for the Construction Industry. This chapter is a treatise dealing with the unique aspects of taxation as it pertains to the construction industry and is part of the premier reference volume for construction financial professionals. Todd also frequently writes and presents on issues of importance to his clients.

Todd received the Debra Hahn Memorial Award in May 2004 from the Construction

Financial Management Association for his leadership in that organization over the last 11 years.
